BROAD STREET TRAILS HOMEOWNERS RULES AND REGULATIONS

General Rules and Regulations and Architectural Control Standard

The Rules and Regulations are intended to enhance the quality of life for all owners, renters and guests alike. They are intended to preserve the safety and value of the properties at the Broad Street Trails. In establishing and maintaining the Rules and Regulations, or Standards, the Board of Directors shall make every effort to ensure that they do not affect units' owners' and renters' rights to enjoyment of reasonable and unrestricted use of their property or privileges of ownership. These Rules and Regulations may be modified, added to, or repealed in whole or in the part at a Board of Directors meeting and must meet the quorum when deemed necessary in the best interest of units owners/residents and the community. It should be remembered that Rules and Regulations do not replace the By-Laws, which the Board of Directors uses as its primary governing document. Both documents are in force. In case of conflict between the wordings of these documents, the CCR's(Covenant,Conditions and Restrictions) will prevail.

Rules and Regulations

- A. Violations should be reported to the Board of Directors of the Association or to any designees of the Management Company.
- B. Violations will be called to the attention of the violating Owner(s) by the Board of Directors in writing and the Board of Directors will also notify the appropriate committee of Association, if any.
- C. Disagreements concerning violations will be presented to and be ruled on the Board of Directors who will take appropriate action.
- D. Unit Owner(s) are responsible for compliance by their guests or lessees and all others.

Rules and Regulations for Broad Street Trails Development

The following Rules and Regulations shall apply to and be binding upon all owners, renters, lessees and their guests. Violation of these Rules and Regulations may subject the violator to any and all remedies available to the Association. Violations may be remedied by the Association by fine, injunction or other legal means and the Association shall be entitled to recover in said actions and all court costs incurred by it, together with reasonable attorney's fees against any person(s) violating the Rules and Regulations and any of the Exhibit attached thereto.

I. Pet Restriction

- A. Ordinary house pets shall include dogs, cats, caged domesticated birds, hamsters, gerbils, and guinea pigs, aquarium fish, small snapping turtles and tortoise, domesticated rabbits, and creatures normally maintained in a terrarium or aquarium. All ordinary pets are permitted subject to the guidelines in this resolution.

XI. Architectural Control

1. Policy
 - a. The architectural covenant imposes a legal requirement on the Association to approve or disapprove construction of new structures, exterior additions or alternations to the original design of units, and all subsequent alterations thereto BEFORE the unit owner starts them. The Board of Directors has delegated to the Architectural Control Committee the task of reviewing applications and making recommendations to the Board for approval or disapproval.

- b. It should be noted that approval of any project does not preclude subsequent adoption of more restrictive or more liberal standards where deemed necessary to maintain or improve overall architectural standards and harmony. No amendment shall affect any project approved prior to adoption of such amendment.
 - c. Any project or exterior modification which was completed prior to the issuance of these regulations which would normally require Board approval prior to initiation shall not be construed as setting a precedent, and will require Board approval before any major repairs, changes, and/or additions are made to said project or modification.
 - d. Before making any exterior changes or initiating any project, which might be contrary to the architectural/maintenance standards, unit owners are reminded that non-approved changes can not only be aesthetically offensive to their neighbors, but can also decrease the value of all units.
 - e. Any project, exterior modification, or other act in violation of these standards is subject to a citation by the Board and may require corrective action to bring the violation into immediate or future compliance with these standards.
2. Alternations to the exterior of buildings or to limited common elements may not be made without approval. A request for External change form must be completed and submitted to the Architectural Committee through the Board. Any request must be in writing.
 3. Exteriors should be maintained; Broken windows, screens and storm foors as well as damaged roofing materials and rotting trim/siding should be repaired promptly.
 4. Landscaping of each residence must be in compliance with what is typical of the development. Any additions or changes to the existing landscaping must first be approved through the Architectural Committee. Any changes are the owners responsibility. Failure to maintain yards and units in acceptable condition will result in the Board having the work done and the associated costs will be billed to the Unit owner.
 5. The Board may determine what constitutes an "eye sore" as to any portion of the Common Area and fix, paint over, remove and dispose fo any such unsightly condition.

XII. Common Areas

1. The lawns and walkways shall not be used for storage or parking or be obstructed in any way. No bicycles, toys, trash cans or recycle bins, or other personal property shall obstruct walkways, parking or other common areas.
2. Open common area (landscaped areas and parking lots) may not be used for games such as baseball, football, and soccer. No board or roller-skating is permitted on the parking.
3. No blankets, tents, or toys of any kind shall be left on the landscaped areas overnight. Neither shall be stored on common areas or sidewalks or in front of the unit.
4. No one is allowed on any roof for any reason, except in emergencies.
5. It is prohibited to litter or cause debris to be put on the Common Area.

XIII. Barbecuing

1. Cooking is permitted in the Common Area or in the back of your Unit only in an opened space. All barbecuing must be done at a minimum of ten (10) feet from building. Only gas grills are allowed. Due to city of the Southern Pines fire regulations the grills should not be under any roof. Grills are forbidden in a front of the unit, sidewalks or parking lot. Charcoal barbecue grills are not permitted except the Common area.
2. No flammable, combustible or explosive fluids, chemicals, or substances shall be kept in any unit, its adjacent yard or on the Common area except for propane tanks and those substances used for normal household use.

XIV. Vandalism

1. Unit owners and their families, tenants and guests shall not deface, remove, or destroy or permit the defacing, removing or destruction of any element of the common areas.

XV. Solicitation

1. Solicitation within the development is not permitted. Placing of materials on or under unit doors is strictly prohibited unless the Board grants express written permission. The exception can be given to the information pamphlets or newsletters send by the Board of Directors or respective committees. Violations should be reported at once to the Board.

XVI. Satellite Dishes and Antennas

1. Satellite dishes should be placed behind the Unit out of public view. The dish should be hidden as much as possible by flowering plants. No satellite dishes shall be attached to or hung from the exterior or the roof of any residence without the express written consent of the Architecture committee. Request must be in writing. No antennas are allowed.

XVII. Miscellaneous

1. Yard sales, flea markets, or similar activities are prohibited unless and to the extent conducted under the auspices of the Association.
2. No basketball Hoops are allowed around the Units.

Enforcing Rules and Regulations

A system of penalties has been established to ensure compliance with the Rules and Regulations of the Association. The Board believes that the enforcement procedure will result in a greater community awareness of reasonable conduct that all unit owners have the right to expect from each other. If the violator is not a unit owner, the owner will be provided with copies of all correspondence pertaining to the violation and ensuring penalties and hearings. The unit owner is ultimately responsible for all fines and the correction of all violations.

I. Fines

A. Fines may be imposed for violation of any of the above rules, according to the following schedule:

1st violation, after written warning - $25.00

Repeated violation - $50.00

The Board of Directors may not impose any fine or infringe any rights of a unit owner for violations of the rules until the following procedures have been complied with.

1. If a violation of the rules is alleged in a written complaint to the Board, the Board will notify the alleged violator in writing to cease and desist from the violation. This notification will include: (a) the nature of the alleged violation; (b) the action required to remove the violation, and (c) notification of a grace period of then days, within which the violation may be removed without penalty. Should the violation continue beyond the grace period, a fine will be imposed.
2. The violator may request a hearing within ten (10) days after imposition of the fine. The request must be made in writing and be addressed to the Board of Trustees. The hearing shall be held in executive session (that is, a closed session) of the Board, and will afford the violator a reasonable opportunity to be heard. The violator may present his/her case to the Board, and the Board will decide, based on the available information regarding the alleged violation, whether or not any fines and/or penalties should be lifted.
3. If a violation is repeated within twelve (12) months of the first notice, a fine will be imposed without a grace period.
4. If any unit owner fails to comply with the Rules and Regulations or By-Laws, or with any decision rendered under the Rules and Regulations and By-laws, the unit owner may be sued for damages or injunctive relief, or both, by the Board. The prevailing in such proceeding maybe entitled to an award for legal fees, as determined by the court.

B. The Owner shall be responsible for ensuring that the Occupant and the guest, invitee and licensees of the Owner or the occupant strictly comply with all provisions of the Declaration, By-Laws, and any rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Directors. Fines may be levied against Owners or occupants. If a fine is first levied against an occupant and is not paid within thirty (30) days, the fine may be then levied against The Owner.

II. Legal Action

If this fine remains unpaid, a lien may be placed against the unit in question. This means that the unit cannot be sold unless the fine with the interest and all associated expenses in filling the lien are paid, and the lien has been removed. In addition, The Board of Directors may foreclose on a lien if it is deemed necessary.

Association is responsible for exterior maintenance upon each Lot which is subject to assessment hereunder, as follows:

Paint, repair, replace and care for roof, gutters, downspouts, exterior building surfaces, trees, shrubs, grass, walks, mailboxes, fences installed by Developer or the Association, exterior post lights (excluding electricity therefore), and other exterior improvements made by Association or Developer.

Such exterior maintenance shall NOT include the following:

Glass surfaces (windows and storm doors), screens, awnings, rear yard areas, and if permitted, approved additions to dwellings made after completion of the initial dwelling (unless maintaining of such addition is affirmatively assumed by the Association, or the repair or reconstruction of any improvements on any Lot, the cost of which repair or reconstruction would be covered by casualty insurance, whether or not a policy of casualty insurance is in effect..

EXTERIOR LANDSCAPING ADDITIONS:

The owner of a lot may at his election plant trees, shrubs, flowers and grass in his rear yard and may also maintain portions, or all of his rear yard – provided that such maintenance by the owner does not hinder the Association in performing its maintenance of the exterior of the house and the remaining yard spaces. Owner would then be responsible for the maintenance and replacement costs of those added plants and trees. Prior to planting any tree, plant or shrub – owner must obtain prior written permission from the Developer or Board of Directors.

Prior written approval must be obtained prior to planting any vegetation in the front yard or side yard.

Enforcement:

The Association, or any Owner, shall have the right to enforce, by any proceeding at law or in equity, all restrictions, condition, covenants, reservations, liens and charges now or hereafter imposed by the provisions of the Association's Declaration. Failure by the Association or by any Owner to enforce any covenant or restriction hereby contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.
